Crimson Dawn is edited by the Public Relations Department of Ananda Marga Pracaraka Samgha in New York Sector. We wish to offer an updated panorama of news and resources for the Ananda Marga society and public at large with particular focus on North, Central America and Caribbean (New York Sector).

Human society is one and it cannot be separated into many. Our mission is to help materializing this ideal bringing together the voices of universal service and spirituality. For more information about the activity of Ananda Marga in North and Central America: <http://nys.amps.org/>
