

Festival Of Faiths, April 19-22, Louisville, Kentucky

It was a wonderful interfaith gathering held in downtown Louisville, with about 400 participants from different religious faiths, spiritual and socially active groups. Brother Yatimana arranged for Ac. Advyananda Avt. to participate and represent Ananda Marga and PROUTist Universal. Many formal and personal interactions were made, most notable with a Bishop Emeritus of Cuba and his aides, and with Tibetan Buddhist monks and representatives of HH Dalai Lama. We attended a nationally-televised event at the Cathedral of the Assumption, with renowned broadcast journalist Ann Curry.

