WWD in New York and Canada

The cleaning yard in WWD office lasted almost a month: we had a sister from Tucson (Jacqueline) helping racking and cleaning for few days. Didi Kusum was cutting old rotten trees, trimming big brunches, etc. Didi A. Hitaesana was helping as well in piling woods, racking, etc.

Then Mohinii and her husband Shyam came to visit and Mohinii appreciated the WWD office library.

Didi A. Hitaesana managed to renovate the entrance cement floor; she achieved also to put a brand new fence that makes

WWD office really outstanding in the neighborhood
