

Service to All - Ananda Marga in New York Sector

Ananda Marga is engaged in serving all segments of society without any distinction. In the most recent weeks several events have taken place which have been promoted by Ananda Marga in New York Sector.

The Seminar in Boston Region saw the special participation of Prof. Ravi Batra who gave a very inspiring conference call in which he explained several aspects of PROUT related to the present day situation in USA and in the world.

The Seminar had three classes given by Acarya Abhiraṃanaṇḁa Avadhuta (on the left) Acarya Sarvajiitananda Avadhuta (in the middle) and Acarya Anudhyananda Avadhuta (on the right)

The school of Ananda Marga started in New York very recently have now 14 students and the number seems to be increasing as the high quality program is affordable by low income families in the neighborhood. In the picture some of the students with Ananda Marga Board representatives Acarya Dhruva , Arish Sahani and LEAD co-founder Andrew Lee.

Several Senior Citizen Centers and Temples in New York benefit from the classes of yoga and health consciousness given by Ananda Marga representatives. The response is always positive as the community is eager to learn by practice the secrets of long life and vitality.
